

BASIC MESSAGE

SUPREME COURT RULINGS

Several years ago God sent us on a special mission. It was to the Supreme Court of the United States. He provided a townhouse right across the street rent-free. It was March, and the early morning weather was quite cool. Every day for a week he got us up early. For several hours we stood at the entrance of the parking garage where the justices came in to work. God gave us favor with the guards and we were able to stand right next to their cars as they waited for the gate to open.

The message He gave us was this, "God is the highest court and final judge. Any decisions made contrary to His word, He will over rule. Read Psalms 2." Each morning they would read these words on the sign we held next to their windows as they entered.

Many are concerned about recent decisions of the court. Some wonder what we should do. We believe Jesus would say, "be about my Father's business." There were many issues Jesus could have dealt with in the pagan Roman society in which He lived. He had one focus, The Kingdom, God's righteous rule in the hearts of people. He left the task of establishing His Kingdom to His Church. He told us, go to the entire world and make disciples. Go to your family, friends, neighbors, co-workers, classmates, and wherever I send you and share the Gospel. Teach those who yield their hearts to Me what it means to live for Me. If we will do this, it will overrule any unrighteous decisions any court or political leader makes. God is going to be victorious. We will be on the victory side if we follow His plan.
