

THE WINDS OF WAR

The Lord woke me (Henry) up the other morning and showed me clearly what I have sensed for some time. The winds of war are blowing. The same historical conditions that existed in the United States of America just before the Revolution and the American Civil War exist today. Also, the same historical conditions that existed just before World Wars I & II exist worldwide today. A perfect storm for the worst wars the world has ever seen is forming. Unless God intervenes it cannot be stopped. I am sharing this not to frighten people, but to give them an opportunity to prepare. Both Proverbs 22:3 & 27:12 tell us, "A prudent man foresees evil and hides himself, but the simple pass on and are punished."

In light of these facts what should we?

1. Pray
2. Prepare
 - A. Make sure your heart is right with God and that you are walking in The Spirit growing to know Jesus more each day and living to fulfill His purpose for you.
 - B. As God leads prepare you and your loved ones for what is coming. The website TheTruthAboutSurvival.com has insights that will help you do this.
 - C. Prepare your heart to be a witness for Jesus no matter what happens. This terrible time will also be the time of the greatest harvest of souls for God's Eternal Kingdom that the world has ever seen.

God is going to take care of those who are following Him no matter how bad it gets. I saw this during Hurricane Katrina in Mississippi. But, since we can see this disaster coming we need to do all we can to prepare, and trust God to do the rest.

You need to ask yourself. Am I ready for the worst wars the world has ever seen? Seek God and prepare. You will make it through what's coming and be part of The Eternal Kingdom that lasts forever. There will be no war or threat of war there.
